Bayview Construction named Signature Sponsor of ‘The Big Tournament’ for Big Brothers Big Sisters of Martin County

Stuart, Fla. (March 13, 2009) – Big Brothers Big Sisters of Martin County announced Stuart-based Bayview Construction as the Signature Sponsor of its March 31st golf fundraising event, ‘The Big Tournament,’ at Hammock Creek Golf Club in Palm City. The golf outing is presented in conjunction with ‘A Taste of Martin County’s Best.’

A longtime supporter of community-based efforts, Bayview Construction donated $5,000 to the non-profit organization’s golf tournament and serves as the lead sponsor of the annual event. A number of Bayview Construction employees will also be playing in the tournament.

“Big Brothers Big Sisters of Martin County is an organization that’s making a positive impact on so many young people’s lives,” said Ken Ringe, president of Bayview Construction. “We’re very proud to lend our support to such a well-run operation that truly puts kids first.”

“Bayview Construction has long been a pillar of the community, and is maintaining its leadership role even during these challenging economic times,” said William Bee, president and CEO of Big Brothers and Big Sisters of Martin County. “We’re excited to have the involvement of such a respected company that truly understands the role of our organization in shaping lives.”

A limited number of openings remain for the tournament, and can be purchased by calling 772-283-8373. Each player receives a buffet lunch, 18 holes of golf with cart, one mulligan, raffle ticket to win various prizes, a generous goodie bag, and two tickets to A Taste of Martin County’s Best.
