Bayview Construction adds three new employees

Newest additions have 52 years of combined construction experience

STUART, Fla. (February 23, 2008) – Ken Ringe, president of Bayview Construction, announced Jack Couch, Rob Mollet and Jack Popovic, as the newest members of the national award-winning general construction company based in Stuart.

Couch is a project manager with 17 years of construction industry experience, and has been involved in major projects spanning across the country. He arrives at Bayview from Infinity Hospitality, Inc., where he served as president. Couch is a decorated Army military officer, who received various commendations for valor and service. He earned a bachelor's degree in Professional Aeronautics from Embry Riddle Aeronautical University, and a master's in Business Organizational Management from the University of La Verne.

Mollet is a project engineer with more than a decade of construction and real estate industry experience. He previously was employed as purchasing manager for Ecclestone Signature Homes in Palm Beach Gardens. Mollet received an associate's degree from Palm Beach Community College and certificates from Florida Atlantic University in Building Construction Technology.

Popovic is a project superintendent with thirty years of construction management experience. His areas of expertise span from airport terminals, multi-family apartment subdivisions and office buildings to warehouse facilities, hotels and industrial plants. Popovic most recently served as project manager for Rinker Materials, Inc. He earned a bachelor's degree from Penn State University in Architectural Engineering and Construction Management.

“In the construction industry, experience matters,” said Ken Ringe, president of Bayview Construction. “These new employees were carefully selected based on their proven construction track records, and commitment to delivering high quality and on-time construction projects to clients. I’m glad to have them as a part of the Bayview team.”

Bayview Construction is a certified state-licensed general contractor. A national award-winning company and a Builder of the Year award recipient by the Treasure Coast Builders Association, Bayview has been in operation for more than 30 years. For more
