Stuart-based Bayview Construction selected to build a new Fairfield Inn and Suites by Marriott on Florida's West Coast

STUART, FLA. (May 22, 2008)—Bayview Construction Corporation today announced it was awarded a contract from Neeta Hotels, Inc., to build a new Fairfield Inn and Suites by Marriott on the 3000 block of Highway 19 in Holiday.

Construction on the 48,633 square-foot, three-story, 78-room hotel is expected to begin in July and be completed July 2009. The hotel will also have fitness and conference rooms, a breakfast dining area, and pool.

Ken Ringe, president of Bayview said, "It's an honor to be chosen for this project, which is our second hotel this year on Florida's West Coast. "We're proud that our high quality work is being noticed by the hotel industry and other sectors across Florida."

Bayview has extensive hotel construction experience and is currently building a Hampton Inn and Suites in Port Richey and a Courtyard by Marriott in Stuart.

Bayview is a certified state-licensed general contractor. A national award-winning company and a Builder of the Year award recipient by the Treasure Coast Builders Association, Bayview celebrates its 30th anniversary this year.
